Collection notice

TAC L2P Program

This collection notice applies to the Transport Accident Commission L2P Program (Program). The Program pairs learner drivers with volunteer mentors to help learners meet their Graduated Licensing System requirements.

VicRoads collects your personal information and health information (information) when you apply for and participate in the Program. VicRoads will protect your information in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 and Health Records Act 2001, as applicable, and as required by other laws and policies.

We collect your information directly from you if you contact us about the Program, or if you provide it to us in the forms you fill out. We may also collect your information from other people or sources. For learners, we may receive your information from the organisations or individuals who refer you to the Program. For volunteer mentors, we may obtain your information from the persons you nominate as your referees. For both learners and mentors, we may use your registration and licensing information (including information sourced from the myLearners Program) we previously collected and currently store for the purposes of your involvement in the TAC L2P Program.

You may interact with VicRoads anonymously if you make a general enquiry, but where you do not provide the information required by our forms, we may be unable to process your application.

When you give VicRoads your information, we use it to process and assess your application and to deliver services to you during the course of the Program.

We may also disclose your information to our employees and to authorised individuals and third party service providers who support us in delivering and managing the Program and assist us by performing functions or activities on our behalf, such as marketing and communications, data security, data hosting and data processing, and Program service providers who may need to enter your information into the VicRoads portal. We also disclose your information to Victorian Government organisations, stakeholders and decision makers who evaluate and monitor the Program.

If you wish to access the information we collect about you or if you require more information about how we handle your information, you can find the full TAC L2P Program collection notice on the TAC L2P page on the VicRoads website.

If you have any questions about this collection notice you can contact the Department of Transport Privacy unit at L2P@roads.vic.gov.au
